A graduate of WLU's music program, Pattie Bender has taught instrumental music in Waterloo Region for over 25 years. She is currently the Music Department Head at Sir John A. Macdonald S.S. in Waterloo where she is the music director for a number of ensembles, ranging from large concert bands to jazz bands to chamber ensembles. Her ensembles regularly earn top rankings at the KW Kiwanis Festival and the MusicFest Canada national festival. In addition to her work with school musicians, she remains an active performer, playing trumpet in the Kitchener Waterloo Community Orchestra. In her free time, she enjoys hiking, skiing and reading.

Hot lunch and refreshment breaks included!
